

On the Border of Order & Chaos

This is not just an awakening but a transformation of the greatest kind...

Our earth is going through a major energy transformation right now and we are destined to transform with her.

This will mean the deconstructing of what we have considered to be real, to reconstruct a new paradigm of consciousness beyond what we have deemed capable.

In this deconstruction, not everything will be immediately revealed or understood or even resonate, however we hold within us the power and the curiosity to seek out the light and the truth and step into it with courage, will and love for the thriving of humanity.

On the border of order and chaos we will always find transformation.

Right now, with have dualistic parallels of order and chaos occurring at the exact same time as the predecessor of transformation.

Order in global lockdown, rules, policies and demands, do's and don't's

Chaos in the unknown with individuals, businesses and their families being thrust into immediate change and needing to adapt quickly - if at all.

As we are in the initiation phase of the birthing process (metaphorically speaking) there are 11 key aspects that we need to individually have in order so to not spiral into chaos as we come out of the birthing process as a transformed being.

1. Making sure our immune system is strong, vital, adaptive and responsive.
2. Making sure our 3 nervous systems are integrated and functional

3. Making sure we are using natural unfiltered sunlight to enhance our biological clocks and systems
 4. Making sure we are reducing our exposure to environmental, food and emotional toxins as these degrade both the immune system and the nervous system
 5. Making sure our mitochondria has an optimal electric potential to make energy and use oxygen
 6. Making sure our immediate EMF environment is managed to the best of our ability
 7. Making sure that our spiritual practices are fluent and consistent
 8. Making sure that the love we hold in our hearts extends beyond our perimeters of normal and known into the infinite of the unknown. Here you will find trust.
 9. Make sure you are learning everyday in alignment with what you love. Bordem is out of alignment with love learning!
 10. Making sure that you are connecting with the earth, her creatures and her elements in a way that you never have before.
 11. Making sure that you go to yourself first for the answers, become accountable and responsible for your thoughts, feeling, behaviours and actions so you can more into a greater space of self-empowerment and therefore globally contribute to the deconstructing of outside controlling power that doesn't not serve you.

Where we were, where we are and where we are going will be individually felt by all yet collectively influential on the global transformation.

This is why the message to get very clear with the root of your fears, acknowledge them and release them is the quintessential ingredient for global transformation into a higher dimensional world.

You are a light being. Your DNA says so.

You have electrical / light potential in every single one of your cells that transmits light.

BE THE TRANSFORMATION YOU WISH TO SEE ON THIS PLANET

and together we CREATE A NEW EARTH, live the life you wish to live and return to everything that you truly are!!!
